

THE HERALD.
IS PUBLISHED
EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING, IN THE TOWN OF
HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KENTUCKY.
—BY—
JOHN P. BARRETT.
AT THE PRICE OF One Dollar and Fifty cents per Year.
Job work of every description done with neatness and dispatch, at city prices. We have a full line of job types, and solicit the patronage of the business community.
The postage on every copy of THE HERALD is prepaid at this office.
Our terms of subscription are $1.50 per year, invariably in advance.
Should the paper suspend publication, from any cause, during the year, we will refund the money due on subscription, or furnish subscribers for the unexpired term with any paper of the same price they may select.
Advertisements of business men are solicited; except those of saloon keepers and dealers in indicating liquors, which we will not admit to our columns under any circumstances.
All communications and contributions for publication must be sent to the Editor.
Communications are not returned unless the job work sent in advance to the Publishers.

LYCURGUS BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1876.

JUST RECEIVED.—200 pieces calico at
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

MR. SCOTT THOMAS, a young man living near Rockport, Ind., and a nephew to Judge J. H. Luce, of our town, paid us a visit last Saturday.
He reports crops very good in his section.

MR. SAM BERRY of Yazoo county
Miss. is visiting our town this week.
He is a nephew of Dr. W. J. Berry of this place. He reports Mississippi right side up for Tilden and Hendricks.

PARTIES ordering job-work by mail should always address their letters to the HERALD, instead of the editor personally. One or two cases of the kind have occurred during the editor's absence, and, consequently, a delay was made in getting up the work.

FOR A GOOD PAIR Bogans go to
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

TAKEN DOWN YOUR SUEX—Uncle Billy Wade, near Centertown, has today growing in his present crop the leaves of which measure 29 inches long and 20 inches wide, and says Mr. J. S.
Newcomb must take down his sign next. This is the largest yet reported.

WE CALL attention to the beautiful picture on fourth page. It is the Central hotel, Louisville, where everybody stops when they go to that city. The Kellys are well-known to portions of the State as generous and warm-hearted gentlemen, and to all who have stopped at the Central as clever accommodating landlords.

JUST RECEIVED—A complete assessment of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, &c., at
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

MR. GEORGE BALTZELL, living one and a half miles from this place, has leaves of tobacco in his present growing crop, that measure 41 inches long and 25 inches wide. Mr. Shelly Barker, living near Beaver Dam, has some leaves in his crop that measure 27 1/2 inches.

MASTERS Roy Gregory and Eugene Pendleton have erected a flag pole near the residence of Judge W. F.
Gregory, and will raise a Tilden and Hendricks flag today at 1 o'clock.
Sam E. Hill will deliver an address to the boys on the occasion.

"We'll rally round the good old flag With hearts both true and warm, And give three cheers, raising cheers For Tilden and Reform."

A LARGE number of the people of our county availed themselves of the pleasures of the excursion to Louisville last Sunday. The train arrived at the city about 11 o'clock and all required to the Central Hotel for refreshments.
After partaking of a good dinner, they visited some of the many places noted for pleasure in the city, and at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, left our metropolis for their homes, highly pleased with their visit.

SOME few weeks ago, Mr. Goodman was putting up a lightning rod for Mr.
George H. Barnes, a few miles south of here, and while engaged at the work a rain came up, and the workmen took shelter in the house. During the rain the lightning struck a green gum tree about three hundred yards from the house and set it on fire.
It began to look like a necessity to have a lightning rod about there somewhere.

JUST RECEIVED—Men's, Boys' and Youths' Clothing, latest styles at
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

Another Old Citizen Passed Away Col. R. T. Bell departed this life, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs.
Ellen Sullenger, in Ohio county, on Monday evening, August 7th, 1876, aged nearly 84 years.

The old veteran was born in Woodford county, in this State, in November, 1792, and served as a volunteer under Gov. Isaac Shelby during the war of 1812; removed to Ohio county about the year 1833; was twice elected to represent this county in the lower house of the Kentucky legislature, and appointed deputy U. S. Marshal to take the census of Ohio county in 1860, which he did in a manner creditable to himself and satisfactory to the Government, and, during his long and useful life, filled many positions of public trust and confidence.

Thus has another of our defenders during the second struggle for independence passed away during the centennial anniversary of our national existence, to be seen no more of men.
But he died full of years and full of honors, mourned by his two faithful daughters, his only surviving children, numerous grand children, and loving friends and neighbors who watched by his bedside and ministered to his wants with unceasing vigilance, and whose watchful care and kind attention did much to alleviate the sufferings of the aged invalid.

He died in the hope of a glorious immortality, and retained the full possession of his mental faculties to the last and up to the very hour of his death maintained a large and interesting interest in the affairs of his people and country.

JUST RECEIVED—Ladies Fall and Winter Hats.
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

THE examining trial of John S.
Moore for the killing of John W. Stear-man was concluded before Messrs.
Coffman and Renter at Ceralvo last Friday, and the defendant was committed for further and denied bail.
His counsel, Messrs. Walker & Hubbard, think he was excusable under the law and testimony, and have filed a petition before his honor, Judge W. F.
Gregory, praying for a writ of habeas corpus, which will determine whether he is entitled to bail or not.

LADIES go to L. Rosenberg & Bro.'s and buy your T. Mings cheap.

DEATH.
DIED—At the residence of her father, Thomas Stevens Esq., at Beaver Dam, on Saturday evening, August 25th, 1876, Miss Florence Stevens.

The early death of this interesting and amiable young lady has thrown a cloud of sorrow over a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and the tear of grief will trickle down the fair face of many a recent school mate of the deceased when they read this announcement that Florence is no longer of this world.

Miss Florence had but recently quit school and entered the battle of life full of youthful vigor and hopes. Possessing a fine form and presence, to which were added mental grace and culture of high order, and, above all, a sweetness of temper and kindness of disposition, what wonder is it that she was a general favorite in the social circle, and the crowning joy and pride of the little family. An only daughter and sister, she was the especial delight of parents and brothers, and was reared with a degree of care that could only be expected would be bestowed upon an only daughter by a watchful and affectionate mother and kind and liberal father, and right nobly and well did she reciprocate all the watchful care and great wealth of affection bestowed upon her by parents and brothers; for as a daughter she was affectionate and dutiful, and as a sister loving and kind, while many a now grief-stricken school-mate can testify that as a friend she was faithful and true.

Blended as were the cardinal virtues of her character, her death upon the very portal of beautiful young womanhood furnishes additional evidence that Death does indeed "love a shining mark." The family in their deep affection have the sincere condolence of many friends.

DIED—At Hartford, Ky., August 23, 1876, about 11 o'clock A. M., little Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel F. Yager, in the 3rd year of his life.

Noble was an unusually bright and interesting little boy, and gave fine promise of making a brilliant and useful man, and his premature death was a heavy blow upon the loving parents, and they have the sympathy of our community in their sad bereavement.

MR. E. C. HUBBARD will deliver his lecture "Genius and Industry," at Ce-ralvo tomorrow night by request of the citizens of that place. Those who have heard him, say it is an excellent lecture. Turn out and hear him.

MR. J. G. WALKER, of Louisville, has been in our town for a week past visiting relatives.

From Caneyville.
CANEYVILLE, KY., Aug 28, '76.
Weather hot, hotter, hottest I have seen since the age of volcanoes.
Some young folks of town say they will get married shortly, but I don't know how shortly.

The Post Office at Madisonville is a cool place this summer for there is Frost in it all the time.

A lady wearing a literal pinback with the pins in various directions set down edgewise on a chair back the other day and got up energetically without my slightest aid or request.

A Typo, editor of the "Tom Thumb Magazine" published here hints on my being careful while reporting for the papers as he has had some shocking or shaking experience while a journalist. Let us rise and sing,

"Am I a soldier of the cross." Games at marbles are much in vogue here as a summer amusement.
Some of the boys are very expert players, but Amos Stinson is the most successful in knocking "milder" or clearing the ring at one shot. He plays alone against any opposition.

Will Prof. Tice predict for us a little cool weather soon or sooner.

You are all aware that the Grayson Journal has changed editors.

School opened here a few days ago under the management of Prof. Til-ford. Success to you, dear John, in your tutorship.

DR. P. O. BRANDON has removed to Brooklya, where he will follow his profession. Dr. B. is a splendid physician and surgeon, exercising much care with patients and giving good treatment to the sick.

Messrs. R. J. Daniel and Ed.
Thomas were in town last Thursday.
Ministers Board, Frazer and Ward held a series of meetings here for ten or twelve days prior to last Wednesday with design of reviving religious interest in the community. The meeting was well attended and several of the unconverted became penitent but there were no professions.

The ministers are highly commended for their earnest and vigorous efforts at moral reform.

The citizens have lately decided and are making arrangements to have a grand festival and concert here on the 22d of September, to acquire means for building a church. An excursion train will be on the road at the time, and it is hoped that all who can will attend. A few pleasant hours are promised everybody coming.

Mr. Romans has lately increased his tobacco purchase, so as to make a total of over 200,000 pounds. The present crop promises to be much heavier now than a short time ago.

Mr. Tom Bond is making pretty large shipments of tan bark and lumber.

The dry goods trade is not very brisk at this time. BLAKE.

Appointments.
The following are the appointments of Rev. W. W. Cook for his last round on the Hartford circuit for 1876.

rsonage in Hartford on Thursday before the 4th Sabbath in September.

Last appointment on the work at Liberty, 4th Sabbath at 11 o'clock A.
M.

Muhlenberg county instructed for Hon. Jas. A. McKennie Monday.
The convention was largely attended, and the resolutions endorsing McKenzie were adopted with but two dissenting voices. We received the proceedings too late for this issue.

Big Invention.
Lloyd, the famous map man, who made all the maps for General Grant and the Union army, certificates of which he published, has just invented a way of getting a relief plate from steel so as to print Lloyd's Map of American Continent—showing from ocean to ocean—on one entire sheet of bank note paper, 40x50 inches large, on a lightning press, and colored, sized and varnished for the wall so as to stand washing, and mailing anywhere in the world for 30 cents, or unvarnished for 25 cents. This map shows the whole United States and Territories in a group, from surveys to 1876, with a million places on it, such as towns, cities, villages, mountains, lakes, rivers, streams, gold mines, railway stations, etc. This map should be in every house. Also, on the same plan, Lloyd's Map of Philadelphia and the Centennial grounds, showing every house, street and number, with twenty-eight columns of matter on reverse side of map of Philadelphia, containing a sketch of and guide to Philadelphia for strangers.
The whole on one entire sheet of bank note paper, two inches larger than the New York Herald, to fold and carry in the pocket. Send 30 cents to the Lloyd Map Company, Philadelphia, and you will get a copy of either map by return mail.

Give Your Name.
We must again request persons who send us communications to give us their true name. Every week we receive communications without any name. We will publish any fictitious name you may send us, but we want your real name, as an evidence of good faith. All communications received not signed by some responsible party, will go to the waste basket certain. We never will publish any communications without knowing the real name of the writer.

Club Rates.
We will send the Hartford Herald and the Riverside Weekly, for one year, for the small sum of $3.00, and in addition thereto, each subscriber will get a premium of a splendid Lithograph. The Riverside Weekly, is devoted to Temperance and Literature and is one of the best family papers we know of. Subscribe at once.

Great Inducement.
We will furnish the Hartford HER-ALD and Weekly Courier-Journal for one year, to the same subscriber, at the same time, for the small sum of $2.75. Subscribe at once.

Notice.
At a meeting of the stock holders of the Ohio County Agricultural and Mechanical Society, on the 15 day of July 1876, the following order was made, viz:

"The grounds belonging to the Association having been sold by the Sheriff of Ohio county for debt, it is ordered that the secretary solicit subscription from among the stock holders to redeem the same. Said subscription to be open until the 1st of February, next."

Those wishing to subscribe, can do so by calling at the County Clerk's Office. SAM K. COX, Sec'y.
July 17th, 1876.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from active practice, having placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple Vegetable Remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a Positive and Radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motivation, and a conscientious desire to relieve human suffering, he will send (free of charge) to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Sent by return mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper.

Dr. W. C. STEVENS,
Munroe Block, Syracuse, N. Y.

Try it—and You will Always use Wood's Improved.

WOOD'S IMPROVED HAIR RESTORA-TIVE is unlike any other, and has no equal. The Improved has new vegetable tonic properties; restores grey hair to glossy, natural color; restores dresses, gives vigor to the hair; restores hair to prematurely bald heads; removes dandruff, humors, scaly eruptions; removes irritation, itching and scaly dryness. No article produces such wonderful effects. Try it, call for Wood's Improved Hair Restorative, and don't be put off with any other article.
Sold by all druggists in this place and dealers everywhere. Trade supplied at manufacturer's prices by C. A. Cook & Co., Chicago, sole agents for the United States and Canada, and by John D. Park, Cincinnati.

HON. J. R. UNDERWOOD, of Bowling Green, died last Wednesday. He would have been eighty-five years old next October. He has filled many responsible and important positions satisfactorily to the people.

Grand Barbecue.
There will be a Grand Barbecue at the No Creek bridge, three miles north of Hartford, on the Owensboro road, on Saturday, the 9th day of September, 1876. A splendid dinner, excellent music and a good place for dancing will be promised. The Presidential electors are all invited, and are expected to speak on the occasion.

D. A. WERN, Prop's.
A. L. BENNETT.
